VFW Post 12033 Scholarship Program

One-time scholarships in the amount of five hundred dollars ($ 500.00) will be awarded by VFW Post 12033 annually to one male and one female recipient meeting the following criteria:

1. Candidate must be the child or grandchild, either biological or adopted, sponsored by an active or retired member of the New York City Fire Department (FDNY).
2. Candidate's parent or grandparent must have served on active duty (DD-214). Or currently serving or previously served in a National Guard or Reserve Unit. Proof of military service must accompany the application.
3. Scholarship winners will be determined by drawing names from a hat.
4. Alternate winners will be drawn should the winning candidate fail to fulfil the Candidate Requirements listed below.

Candidate Requirements:

1. Applicant must be a graduating high school senior with intentions of attending a college or an accredited trade school.
2. Scholarship applications must be submitted to the VFW Post 12033 scholarship committee before September 1 of the student's high school graduation year.
3. Adoption certificate must accompany scholarship application for an adopted child.
4. Proof of sponsor's military service must accompany scholarship application.
5. Scholarship(s) will be awarded after the first semester with the following stipulations:
 - a. Completion of a full semester
 - b. Submission of a grade report with a minimum GPA of 2.5 for the completed semester to the scholarship committee
 - c. Enrollment in a second semester at the same school as the first semester
 - d. Submission of a bursar's receipt to the scholarship committee for a subsequent semester at the same school
 - e. Letter of intent must be submitted to the scholarship committee if applying to and attending a different school.
 - f. If attending a different school, one full semester must be completed at the second school, then enrollment as per sections 5a, 5b, 5c, 5d.
6. Failure to fulfil the "Candidate Requirements" stated in this document will disqualify the original awardee and the alternate winner (Scholarship Program Section 4) will be awarded the scholarship provided the new awardee complies with the candidate requirements as per this document.
